ABOUT AISHA

Aisha Arshad moves audiences to become their best selves by weaving classical Islamic knowledge with modern personal growth. With a Higher Diploma in Islamic Studies and an M.S. in Educational Technology, she has spoken at Cornell University, the University of Michigan, AlMaghrib Institute, and masjids across Michigan. She is also the founder of The Strong Believer, her coaching program that has served more than 70 Muslim women worldwide.

SIGNATURE TALKS

01 Unapologetically Muslim

Carry Islam with confidence into every space: appreciate your faith and answer hard questions with clarity.

02 Ambition Rooted in Faith

Pursue meaningful goals with purpose and trust in Allah, letting go of the belief that wanting more is wrong.

03 Peace & Power Through Trust in Allah

How His Names and promises bring peace in hardship, steadiness under pressure, and a calm heart.

04 Making the Most of Sacred Seasons

A sustainable approach to Ramadan, its last 10 nights, and Dhul Hijjah that avoids overwhelm and builds lasting habits.
